For your Prayer and Meditation

Reflect on the Sunday Liturgy

Entrance Antiphon

The shepherds went in haste, and found Mary and Joseph and the Infant lying in a manger.

Sunday Readings 1 Sm 1:20-22, 24-28/Ps 84:2-3, 5-6, 9-10 (see a)/1 Jn 3:1-2, 21-24/Lk 2:41-52

First Reading

"I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD." (1 Sm 1:27-28)

In gratitude to the Lord, Hannah returned the gift of her son, Samuel. Is there a gift from the Lord for which you are particularly grateful?

Psalm Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord. (Ps 84)

Second Reading

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. (1 Jn 3:2)

As children of God, John teaches us that believers should love one another and believe in the name of Jesus. In addition to faith and love, what else do you think unites us as children of God?

Gospel

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers. (Lk 2:46)

St. Luke presents an anxious experience that Mary and Joseph had as parents raising the young boy, Jesus. Do you recall a time when your parents were worried or anxious about you?

Communion Antiphon

Our God has appeared on the earth and lived among us.

Mary, Mother of God, Jan. 1

Entrance Antiphon Hail, Holy Mother, who gave birth to the King who rules heaven and earth for ever.

Readings Nm 6:22-27/Ps 67:2-3,5, 6, 8 (2a)/Gal 4:4-7/Lk 2:16-21

Mass Intentions

Parishioners may schedule a Mass intention on our website or by calling the office. Sunday Masses are offered Pro Populo

Dec. 31— NO DAILY MASS

Jan. 1— Pro Populo

Jan. 2 —Mark Wall—RIP

Jan. 3 (St. Peter)— Fr. Jim Lee

The Code of Canon Law confirms the practice of offering Masses for particular intentions is ancient: "The Christian faithful who give an offering to apply the Mass for their intention contribute to the good of the Church and by that offering share its concern to support its ministers and works" (945 §2).

Prayer Intentions

Loving God, we join with others of your people here asking you to hold in Your hands all of our homebound brothers and sisters and those who have asked for our prayers

For The Sick and Homebound*

Robert Fisher, Marcella Thornton, , Theresa Gonzales, Joe Judge, Pam Henslee, Mary Taylor, Leslie Seffern, Gaby Makinster, Maria Espino, Mort Kimball, and Fr. Jim Lee.

For The Deceased

All the souls in purgatory, especially all those who have no one to pray for them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

For peace in the world, for God's protection on those in danger, the defeat and true repentance of unjust aggressors, and mercy for those who have died by violence.

Monthly Intentions of the Pope

December: For pilgrims of hope— We pray that this Jubilee Year strengthen our faith, helping us to recognize the Risen Christ in our daily lives, and that it may transform us into pilgrims of Christian hope.

January: For the right to an education—Let us pray for migrants, refugees, and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

Sunday Letter

WELCOME TO SAINT COLUMBAN We proclaim the Roman Catholic faith to the communities of McKenna, Nisqually, Rainier, Roy, Tenino, and Yelm in southeast Thurston and southwest Pierce counties. Our community has grown since its origins at the former St. Margaret Mary Church in McKenna, and our current church in Yelm is named for the Irish-born 6th century missionary to Europe St. Columbanus of Bobbio. We have also been present in Tenino since 1891 through St. Peter Mission, named for the apostle and first pope.

Did you know our front pews are always empty? Be closer to the Lord and sit closer to the altar next Sunday.

A Word from our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Is there a better Christmas hymn than O Holy Night? The answer is no. There isn't. It is handed down the best, and it isn't a debate, so don't come at me trying to tell me I'm wrong, unless you want to lose any influence over me that you may have gained in the last six months.

When I think of the song I of course think of the gorgeous melody, and the crescendo at that final "Divine" belted out by the singer. No Christmas hymn has a more powerful moment. Although the melody stands out, there are also a few profound lyrics that I think need to be acknowledged.

♪ Long lay the world in sin and error pining, Till He appeared, and the soul felt its worth. ♪

A powerful lyric, that speaks to the reality of many worn souls. Sin isn't just breaking a rule. The word for sin in Hebrew, Kata, literally means, "Missing the Mark." It means that you try to hit a target and miss. Well, a lot of people are trying to fill their hearts, but they miss the mark. What they do for love doesn't hit the spot. That is the human condition at its worst. We are in error, pining for some relief, and hating ourselves because we can't seem to get things right.

♪ But when he appeared, the soul felt its worth. ♪

Have you ever had a moment where your soul suddenly felt its worth? Have you ever gone from feeling completely worthless and unworthy of love, to experiencing the love of God? Because that is what the lyrics convey and they convey it very well. This is what we should always be trying to convey to others... to help their soul feel its worth.

♪ In all our trials born to be our Friend. He knows our need— to our weakness is no stranger. ♪

This is from the oft omitted second verse of the song, so the lyric might be unfamiliar to you, but it speaks to the reality that the love of God draws close to us. God does not run from us when we are in need, as many do. God draws close to us and endures our trials with us. He is a friend who opens himself up to experience some of the burdens that life throws at us.

God knows the needs of the human heart. He knows the need for love and in some odd way, he has experienced that need himself. But he also shows us how to fill the needs of the heart, to lead us into love and peace. He shows us how to love the Father, and to love others. Hence the third verse:

♪ Truly He taught us to love one another; His law is love and His gospel is peace. ♪

Love isn't something that we know with our instincts. When we rely on instincts and feelings to find true love, we often find ourselves broken hearted, and in that place of the above lyric pining for relief in our error. We need to be taught to love and, when we love rightly, we experience the peace of the Gospel.

I hope everyone has a truly wonderful Christmas and can enter into the joy of the Gospel that this wonderful hymn explains so well.

Merry Christmas!

Dialogue for Justice: Catholic Advocacy to Reduce Poverty

Twelve-year-old Jesus has been left behind in a big city (Lk 2:41-52! His parents had great trust that he would be at the appointed place at the appointed time to return home. A day later they discover he is not with the caravan. What parent has not had the experience of losing a child even for a few seconds or minutes in a store? That time, no matter how brief, is filled with panic and anxiety! "Where is he/she? What's happened to him/her? He/she was just here!" Mary and Joseph had the same feelings and perhaps even deeper since it had been 24 hours since the caravan had left for home. Jesus, as we know, was locked in serious discussion about theological matters with elders of his faith tradition. How about runaway children who disappear into the maelstrom of life on the streets? Risk factors of runaway children can include physical or sexual abuse, family conflict, substance abuse, gang activity, online 534 The finding of Jesus in the temple is the only event that breaks the silence of the Gospels about the hidden years of Jesus. Here Jesus lets us catch a glimpse of the mystery of his total consecration to a mission that flows from his divine sonship: "Did you not know that I must be about my Father's work?" Mary and Joseph did not understand these words, but they accepted them in faith. Mary "kept all these things in her heart" during the years Jesus remained hidden in the silence of an ordinary life.

High School Placement Test offered at Pope John Paul II High School

The HSPT is a standardized test administered to 8th graders that helps schools know where to place students academically when they enter high school. The test takes approximately three hours to complete and an essay will be administered after the standardized portion of the test.

We host a Prospective Parent Information Session during the first hour of the HSPT for parents and guardians. The HSPT can be shared with any school that accepts the HSPT regardless of where it was proctored.

The cost of the test is $30 which can be paid online for anyone with a JPII FinalSite account, or via cash/check on the day of the test. Registration is required and can be accessed via the QR code or at:

Jubilee 2025

Pilgrims of Hope

What is a Jubilee?

A Jubilee is a special year of prayer. Jubilees are times for forgiveness, reconciliation, and pilgrimage and are a part of the Catholic tradition. Jubilees ordinarily take place every twenty-five years.

When does this Jubilee begin and end?

Pope Francis will formally open the Holy Doors at St. Peter's Basilica on December 24, 2024 and close them on January 6, 2026. Locally, our observance of the Jubilee will begin on December 29, 2024, and conclude on December 28, 2025.

What is the theme of Jubilee 2025?

The theme of Jubilee 2025 is Pilgrims of Hope.

“Everyone knows what it is to hope. In the heart of each person, hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future may bring....For all of us, may the Jubilee be an opportunity to be renewed in hope.”

—Pope Francis

What are ways to observe the Jubilee?

During the Jubilee, millions of people are expected to make a pilgrimage to Rome to walk through the Holy Doors at one of the four major basilicas. For those unable to travel to Rome, there are many other ways to participate in the Jubilee, through pilgrimage, prayer, and service.

What is the Jubilee indulgence?

The Jubilee indulgence is a traditional part of a Jubilee year. It is a plenary indulgence which can be applied either to yourself or to your deceased loved ones. The ordinary conditions for obtaining the Jubilee indulgence are to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, to pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, and to make a pilgrimage locally or to Rome. You can also obtain the Jubilee indulgence by participating in one of the spiritual or corporal works of mercy. Learn more on the USCCB website.

What if you can't make it to Rome?

You can make a Jubilee pilgrimage closer to home by visiting St. James Cathedral in Seattle or one of the other designated pilgrimage places in the archdiocese. In each location, you will find a self-guided pilgrimage brochure including special prayers for the Jubilee. Learn more at archseattle.org/Jubilee2025.
